

MSLF at the Boston Bruins November 11th, 2006 Veteran's Day

On Veteran's Day 2006 the Mass. Soldiers Legacy Fund (MSLF) was chosen as the Boston Bruin's "charity of the game" through the Boston Bruins Foundation. On this evening Shannon Enos and her son Marcus Enos (3-yrs old) represented the all eligible MSLF families. The Bruin's Foundation honored Shannon and Marcus with an on-ice presentation during the 1st intermission. Shannon was escorted to the ice by West Roxbury resident and United States Marine Corps Veteran Dan McMorrow who had just returned from a 9-month tour of duty in Iraq, as well as MSLF Executive Director Peter Trovato, and Fund Trustees Bill Ramsey and Eric Kapitulik. All proceeds from the night's 50/50 Raffle were donated to the MSLF. While in Boston, Shannon and Marcus had the opportunity to meet Bruins captain Patrice Bergeron and visit with Massachusetts Senator John Kerry.
